

DIR 0171

OPERATIONS TRAINING TASK FORCE

Objective:

Evaluate the operations officer training (BOC and AOC) with a view to running the programs in less time with fewer instructors:

Tasks:

1. Reexamine the job of the operations officer and determine what information and skills an employee requires to do the operations officer job.
2. Determine what you expect him to know or be able to do when the training is finished.
3. Determine the best pedagogical methods to get him to the expectancies described in 2 above.
4. Organize the instruction into relevant course packages.*

Task Force:

STATINTL

Timing:

The Task Force should submit a preliminary plan for the DTR's consideration by 31 December 1974 and a final plan by 1 March 1975.

*The group need not be constrained to think only in terms of the BOC and AOC but should consider other course configurations to achieve the objectives of the training.
